

Global Hiring Referral Policy

We value referrals because we trust our employees to know which candidates are most likely to succeed at Koenig. The process is very simple.

Scope

This Employee Referral Program Policy applies to all Kites who refer a candidate to Koenig.

What is an employee referral bonus?

If you know someone who you think would match the requirements for a job position in Koenig refer them to Koenig HR. This policy is applicable if the candidate joins within 4 months of the date of referring.

Following is the referral bonus:

Country of candidate referred	Referral Bonus
Germany, Singapore, UK, Netherlands, USA, Canada, Australia	USD 500
India	INR 10,000
All other countries	USD 250

Conditions:

- Referral amount shall be applicable only for experienced hiring and will not be considered for fresher hiring and internship will not be counted as experience.
- The bonus will be paid within 15 days of the candidate completing 4 months in Koenig. The referral bonus will not be applicable if the referred employee is currently under a Performance Alert (PA), Performance Improvement Plan (PIP), in their notice period, or during the one-month period following the completion of a PIP.
- If two or more employees refer to the same candidate, only the first referrer will receive the reward.
- Profiles received previously via mail/ career page or other sources will not be considered.
- All Kites are eligible to participate in our referral program except for:
 - Recruiters and Hiring Managers (including CSM+ and Trainer+) for positions for which they are hiring.
- This Policy is for Overseas Kites
- The referral bonus will not be adjusted in the Full and Final settlement if the referred employee has not completed 120 days and the referring employee leaves the organization before that period.

How to Refer?

References must be shared by via Refer and Earn Panel to be eligible for Referral Bonus.

Dear Kites,

This is to keep you informed about the Work from Home policy, the purpose of this email is to give you more clarity on the process.

Sexual harassment at the workplace or other than the work place, if involving an employee, is a grave offence and is therefore punishable under the Indian Penal Code.

As per the guidelines of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, Koenig Solutions Ltd. is fully compliant for the effective redressal of grievances related to sexual harassment. This policy takes complete cognizance of the latest legislation by the Government of India, "Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013 (hereinafter referred to as the POSH Act)" and its rules notified on 9.12.2013.

1. POLICY

At Koenig Solutions Ltd., all employees are expected to uphold the highest standards of ethical conduct at the workplace and in all their interactions with business stakeholders. All employees of the Company have a personal responsibility to ensure that their behaviour is not contrary to this policy and Koenig encourages all its employees to reinforce the maintenance of a work environment free from sexual harassment. This means that all employees have a responsibility to:

- Treat each other with dignity and respect;
- Follow the letter and spirit of the law;
- Refrain from any unwelcome behavior that sexual connotations (of sexual nature);
- Refrain from creating a hostile atmosphere at the workplace via sexual harassment;
- Report sexual harassment experienced and/or witnessed, to appropriate authorities and abide by the complaint handling procedure of the company.

The following circumstances, among other circumstances, may amount to sexual harassment:

- Implied or explicit promise of preferential treatment in the employment;
- Implied or explicit threat of detrimental treatment in her employment; or
- Implied or explicit threat about the present or future employment status;
- Interference with work or creating an intimidating or offensive or hostile work environment;

An alleged act of Sexual Harassment committed during or outside of office hours falls under the purview of this policy.

2. SCOPE

- This Policy extends to all employees of the Company and is deemed to be incorporated in the service conditions of all employees of the Company in India. Local Country laws will take precedence over this policy, in other jurisdictions, if applicable.
- Sexual harassment would mean and include any of the following but not limited to:
- Unwelcome sexual advances involving verbal, non-verbal, or physical conduct, implicit or explicit;
- Physical contact and advances;
- Demand or request for sexual favors;
- Sexually coloured remarks, including but not limited to vulgar/indecent jokes, letters, phone calls, text messages, e-mails, gestures etc.;
- Showing pornography or the like;
- Any other unwelcome physical, verbal, or non-verbal conduct of sexual nature;
- Physical contact and advances such as touching, stalking, sounds which have explicit and/or implicit overtones, molestation;

- Teasing, voyeurism, innuendos and taunts, physical confinement and/or touching against one's will and likely to intrude upon one's privacy.

3. COMPLAINT MECHANISM

An appropriate complaint mechanism in the form of 'Complaints Committee', and in conformity with the provisions of the POSH Act and Rules thereof, has been created in the Company for time-bound redressal of the complaint by the victim.

4. COMPLAINT COMMITTEE

The Complaints Committee will comprise of the following members, of which at least two members will be of the same genders that of the complainant:

- a. Ms. Sakshi Dhawan (Group Manager HR)
- b. Ms. Nidhi Kumra (Manager-HR)
- c. Mr. Subodh Kumar Chaudhary (Group Manager)
- d. Ms. Ritakshi (External Member)

The Complaints Committee is responsible for:

- Investigating every formal written complaint of sexual harassment;
- Taking appropriate remedial measures to respond to any substantiated allegations of sexual harassment; and
- Discourage and prevent any employment-related sexual harassment.

5. PROCEDURES FOR RESOLUTION, SETTLEMENT OR PROSECUTION OF ACTS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

The Company is committed to providing supportive environment to resolve concerns of sexual harassment as under:

5.1. Informal Resolution Option

When an incident of sexual harassment occurs, the victims of such conduct can communicate their disapproval and objections immediately to the harasser and request the harasser to behave decently. If the harassment does not stop or if the victim is not comfortable with addressing the harasser directly, the victim can bring their concern to the attention of the Complaints Committee for redressal of their grievances. The Complaints Committee will thereafter provide advice or extend support as requested and will undertake prompt investigation to resolve the matter.

5.2. Complaints

An employee with a harassment concern, who is not comfortable with the informal resolution options or has exhausted such options, may make a formal complaint to the Presiding Officer of the Complaints Committee constituted by the Management.

The complaint against the alleged incident, shall have to be submitted in writing, to any or all the members of the Committee within three months from the date of occurrence of incident, with the details of the aggrieved employee i.e., name, department, division, location they are working in & signature, to enable the Committee members to contact the aggrieved employee and take the matter forward, along with supporting and relevant details/proofs such as physical copies of emails, recording, details of dates, places, witnesses, etc. The evidence submitted should be tamper proof.

The Complaints Committee may, for the reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the time limit exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such, which prevented the aggrieved employee from filing the complaint within the said period.

5.3. Enquiry and Decision

The Complaints Committee may, before initiating an inquiry and at the request of the aggrieved employee, take steps to settle the matter between him/her and the accused through conciliation. The Complaints Committee shall forward the settlement to Ms. Sakshi Dhawan (Senior Manager HR) and shall provide the copies of the settlement to the aggrieved person and the accused, and no further inquiry shall be conducted in the matter.

Such settlement may include the following terms:

- a. Restoring the lost terms and conditions of employment to the aggrieved person.
- b. Disciplining of the accused which may entail tendering a formal apology by the accused, counselling of the accused, a written warning to the accused, demotion, suspension, or termination.

The Complaints Committee shall, in the absence of a settlement, proceed to determine whether the allegations (assuming them to be true only for the purpose of this determination) made in the complaint fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment, preferably within 14 days from receipt of the complaint.

The Committee shall hear the Complainant and record the allegations. If the Complainant does not wish to depose in person due to embarrassment of narration of events, a lady officer, as desired by the aggrieved employee, shall record the statement on behalf of the aggrieved employee. Thereafter, the Committee shall summon the person against whom the Complaint is made for the purposes of a deposition before the Committee and an opportunity shall be given to such person to give an explanation to the allegations, in the form of written submissions, to be submitted within one week from the date of summoning of the accused. The committee shall provide a copy of statements/ replies and all documentary evidence provided by the aggrieved employee / accused to the other party where after, an 'Inquiry' shall be conducted and concluded, in the utmost fair and justified manner.

The Committee shall complete the 'Inquiry' within reasonable period but in no case beyond three months from the date of its commencement and communicate its findings and its recommendations for action to the Board of the Company. In the event of any delay in submission of the Inquiry Report, the reasons for the same shall be recorded in writing by the Committee. The Report of the Committee shall be treated as an Inquiry Report on the basis of which a delinquent employee shall be awarded appropriate punishment by the Board of the Company. The Board will act on the report of the Committee in accordance with the Company Rules and provisions of the POSH Act, 2013.

In case the accused fails to participate in the inquiry process, physically or through written representation, the same shall be construed as violation of Company Rules and all the allegations against the accused shall be perceived to be correct and the conduct of the accused shall be treated as Gross Professional Misconduct.

The Committee shall not permit any evidence or examination based on the aggrieved individual's character, personal life, and conduct, personal and sexual history.

Where the Committee arrives at a conclusion that the allegation against the accused has not been proved, it shall recommend to the Board that no action is required. Where an incident of Sexual Harassment has been determined by the Committee, corrective / disciplinary action based on the gravity of the offence may be recommended to the Management of the Company/Board.

The range of corrective measures / disciplinary and such suitable measures and action which the Board may consider imposing, may include but not limited to:

- a. A communication / letter of warning be sent to the employee and a copy of which shall be placed in the personal file of that employee by Human Resources Department.;
- b. Immediate transfer or any other appropriate disciplinary action;
- c. Stoppage of increment with or without cumulative effect;
- d. Reduction in rank;
- e. Termination/dismissal from the services of the Company;
- f. Any other action that the Board may deem fit and proper; and
- g. Filing of a complaint before the relevant statutory / police authorities / court of law;

In case of the complaint being found and determined to be of malafide intent or blatantly false or that the incident was publicized without going through the recommended process, such behaviour will be construed as a misconduct and the Complainant shall, if deemed fit be liable for any or all appropriate disciplinary action, such as counselling, penalty, suspension and termination of services, by the Management of the Company.

The Company shall provide all necessary assistance for the purpose of ensuring full, effective and speedy implementation of this Policy. The Company is committed to provide an environment that is free from any form of discrimination and harassment against its employees.

OTHERPOINTS

The Chairperson of the committee, on behalf of the committee, shall submit a copy of all complaints received and redressed to the Corporate Ombudsman on an annual basis. For any doubts related to policies, please feel free to write us on hr@koenig-solutions.com.

Fast-track Growth

Koenig believes in constant growth and support for all Kites. We are introducing a new opportunity for all Executives based on your Manager's feedback.

Any executive, who has been marked by their Manager for the following, can/will be given more responsibilities regularly. They will also be appraised every 6 months and salary increased as per new responsibilities undertaken and performance.

☐ This reportee has potential to take on additional responsibilities.

The executives who are marked will be impacted as follows:

- (i) Their career will be on fast track mode and will be monitored at SMT level
- (ii) They will keep getting additional responsibilities
- (iii) Their salary will be reviewed 6 monthly (increment based upon performance on additional responsibilities)

We hope you will take benefit of this great opportunity and strive to grow professionally.

Moonlighting Policy:

With permanent WFH, it is important to reiterate our Moonlighting policy. Moonlighting is the industry term for taking up a Second Job/ Consulting/ freelancing / any other paid assignment during employment with one company.

Though Koenig endeavors to provide maximum freedom of work to its employees, the same should not clash with our business interests.

Koenig follows a policy of "bounded freedom" w.r.t Moonlighting.

1. Moonlighting can be allowed if it does not clash with Koenig's business interests and it must be approved in writing by Koenig HR.
2. In all other cases, Koenig prohibits Moonlighting.
3. It is mandatory for all Kites to update their LinkedIn profile with their current job.

Please note, if any employee is found in violation of the above provision, then the same shall be an act of Gross Professional misconduct and the services of the said employee shall be terminated with immediate termination without any severance pay. Please also note, in such cases of termination, if the company receives any background verification request in future, then the cause of termination shall be pointed as gross professional misconduct and moonlighting.

With reference to the Koenig's Moonlighting policy, please note that there is no conflict of Interest in creating a YouTube channel.

We allow creating on YouTube channels and if you feel they are aligned with Koenig's Vision and Mission, they can be promoted by linking to your Auto Resume via ESS.

Change in Hierarchical levels:

It has been decided to forego the level of 'Senior' for Managers and Group Managers. Current Senior Managers and Senior Group Managers will be re-designated as Managers and Group Managers respectively. The goal is flattening the hierarchy.

Thus, the next career growth for 'Managers' will be 'Group Manager' and for 'Group Managers' it will be 'Vice President'
